

International diplomacy plays a crucial role in maintaining peace and fostering cooperation among nations.